Leading up to the Yanaguana Market, the Briscoe Museum will host a FREE lecture on Thursday, September 29 at 6:30pm by Dr. Adrienne Keene (Cherokee Nation) on cultural appropriation and stereotypes of Native peoples in popular culture. As a Native scholar, writer, and activist, Dr. Keene will highlight the value and artistic integrity of authentic Native arts and discuss topics ranging from sports mascots, mass-produced “Indian-inspired” jewelry, and Halloween costumes. This lecture is part of the Briscoe’s ongoing Voices of the West: Distinguished Lecture Series.

The Yanaguana Indian Arts Market is held in accordance with the Indian Arts & Crafts Act, a critical piece of legislation that protects Native artists and consumers; Market attendees are assured that what they purchase is authentic and that the materials used are of the highest quality. About The Briscoe Western Art Museum

The Briscoe Western Art Museum, named in honor of the late Texas Governor, Dolph Briscoe, Jr. and his wife, Janey Slaughter Briscoe, preserves and presents the art, history, and culture of the American West through engaging exhibitions, educational programs, and public events reflective of the region's rich traditions and shared heritage. Located along the San Antonio River Walk, its campus is inclusive of the restored historic 1930s former San Antonio Public Library building which now serves as the Museum space with nine galleries on three levels; the new, three-story Jack Guenther Pavilion used for event rentals and programs; and the outdoor McNutt Sculpture Garden.
